

DIFFERENT
Ron Lynch Chalice 5-3-86

How can we be so different
Why can't we be the same
So what if we don't look alike
Or share a common name

How can we be so different
Don't we have the same hopes and desires Maybe we don't always think the same Or wear the same attire

CHORUS:
The only difference between you and me
is that you are you
and I am me
The only difference
that I can see
is that you are you
and I am me

How can we be so different and completely unforgiving Whether Jordan or Israel or Palestine everyone's life is worth living

How can we be so different
full of jealousy and greed in Bonn and Beirut and South Africa
we all have our common needs

CHORUS

How can we be so different in what we search and seek Must the strong always exercise power over the disadvantaged and weak

How can we be so different and our world so filled with hate with work we could end our differences but no one will carry the weight
