

GIVE ME WHAT IT TAKES
Ron Lynch Chalice 5-17-86

Note: the chorus of this one was "borrowed" for "To the Audience (The Touch)" which is scheduled for the Love Your Eyes CD. - RLC

I've tried for a long, long time to send my message to the world I felt, because the thoughts were mine
Nobody would care, nobody could share Nobody would even listen to my words
So I waited for another time

CHORUS:

I kept putting it off to another day as if I didn't have anything to say

You, You give me what it takes to make my dreams come true all the things I've never done can be done because of you

I started, but never got things done
I set it aside all the time
I waited until the new days sun
I'd get my things out, then I'd put them away
I stopped working each day before I'd even begun

CHORUS

But now, as I was running out of time into my life you appeared I wake, to days I know are mine Blank paper each day, no longer stays that way
'Cause minutes after I start it's filled with lines

CHORUS (until fade)
