

GREEN LEAVES
Ron Lynch Chalice 5-6-86

Where have they gone
Can you see them?, can you see them?
They were all my friends
Can you hear them?, can you hear them?

CHORUS:
They all went searching for leaves of green
They seem to have been lost, somewhere in between
They crossed many borders, rivers and streams
All in looking for the end of their dreams

Where are they now
Can you know them, can you know them?
They've gotten lost somehow
Can you show them, can you show them?

CHORUS

They've finally come home
In boxes with flags on them
If we only had known
Can you hear them, can you hear them?
