Ron Lynch Chalice 2-68, 11-68, 3-69 Revised 4-20-86

PART I (Anonymous Monotonous 2/68)

Dig it man, do what we say, do as we tell you, you'll be okay get respected, pray hard and long, give us your bread and sing a loud song

CHORUS I:

I've got a secret, I want to tell you, but don't tell no one, the bible was written by smack freaks

Can't have a woman, until you are wed then it's okay to take her to bed Your baby died, they say it's God's will they say she sinned 'cause she was using the pill gotta live alone, repent for your deeds ignore the pain of your physical needs

PART II (a small interlude 4/86)

But it's all right on sunday morning, 'cause mommy and daddy are christians then Forget about your mommy's beaus and the people your daddy cheated this week 'cause it's all right on sunday morning you know mommy and daddy are christians then

PART III (shelter house 3/69) see the little bird in the sky, do you wonder why he can fly if you ask him he'll tell you why

It's God who gives life and God who takes life and God who gives me the gift of flight see the little kitten at play, do you wonder what he would say when he's asked to take you away

It's God who gives life and God who takes life and God who gives me the gift of life see the soldier killing in war he says he does a patriots chore on judgement day he'll wonder what for for God gives life, only God takes live and God will choose his place in death.

PART IV (God vs Country 11/68) is it your God or your country, you have got to make a choice is it your God or your country, you have got to raise your voice even in boy scouts, I was told, that only God could save my soul the bible says 'thou shalt not kill', daddy says do it it's your country's will

PART V (Anonomous Monotonous, a continuation 4/86) and now that I, have gotten older, my questions have become much bolder if abdul kills for his god, and moshe kills for his god and falwell burns books for his god I think I was right from the beginning

I've got a secret, I want to tell you, but don't tell no one the bible was written by death freaks repeat until fade
