

YO HO
Ron Lynch Chalice 3-17-88

Note: Thought a music video would make a good, tax deductible, trip to the Caribbean. - RLC

Our captain is a mean old man,
Who's stingy with the rum
Some people call us Pirates
While others call us scum
So if you see us coming
You'll hide your wealth and wife
Hide your daughters well away
And flee for your very life

CHORUS:

YO HO, we're gonna swash,
YO HO, we're gonna buckle
YO HO, We're gonna sail the seven seas
YO HO, we're gonna rape
YO HO, we're gonna pillage
YO HO, we're gonna do just what we please

We have a little cabin boy,
We chase him 'round the deck
And if we ever catch him
We hug him 'round the neck
Our mascot is a little pig
Named Elizabeth McFee
And if she fails to please us
We'll eat her, don't you see

BRIDGE:

Give us your treasure, give us your gold
Give us your daughters too
And if you give us a little Rum,
We might be nice to you

So if you're ever sailing and you hear our cannon roar
You should run into your cabin and double bolt the door
Of course, we still will find you
You haven't got a chance
We'll hang you from the yardarm and watch your little dance.
